

Five clues before you buy a romantasy gift.

You do not need to understand the whole genre. Gather what you can, then use the answers to choose something that feels like you listened.

01

What do they talk about most?

Favorite series, author, reread, annotated copy, character, court, or fictional world.

02

How do they actually read?

Physical books, e-reader, audiobooks, or a mix. Check the exact device model.

03

Are they a reader, a collector, or both?

Collectors may care deeply about matching covers, sprayed edges, signatures, and exact editions.

04

Who—or what—is their favorite?

Do not assume the most famous character is theirs. Ask a bookish friend if needed.

05

How do they like to feel appreciated?

Useful, sentimental, collectible, shared experience, protected quiet time, or freedom to choose.

THE THINGS THEY MENTION ARE THE MAP.
